Leave your worries and wallet at home.

All-inclusives get a bad rap. And that's because certain types favor the quantity-over-quality philosophy. Images of endless buffets and cheap booze come to mind. But there are plenty of upscale alternatives scattered throughout the Caribbean that cater to discerning travelers (AKA gourmet food, top-shelf spirits, and world-class amenities are all part of the package). From big-name properties like Zoëtry Agua Punta Cana to under-the-radar gems such as The Caves, our picks are guaranteed to change your tune about all-inclusive resorts.

The Caves

WHERE: Negril, Jamaica

A far cry from all-you-can-eat buffets and jam-packed schedules, this grown-up getaway offers a more intimate all-inclusive experience geared towards couples. Expect cliffside cottages, cerulean seas, warm hospitality, and fantastic fare—lobster tail, anyone? Speaking of, pairs can indulge in private grotto dining or a brown sugar body scrub at the spa. With all this, it's easy to see why The Caves is lauded among the most romantic spots in the Caribbean.
